$120,000

It was a banana against a white wall, held in place by a single piece of duct tape. The piece, “Comedian” by Italian artist Maurizio Cattelan, sold for $120,000 at Art Basel Miami Beach in 2019 and gained notoriety as copies of it have been shown, sold — and eaten — since it was first made. # 1. Love God

And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ - Mark

2. Love your neighbor

For though I am free from all, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though not being myself under the law) that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that by all means I might save some.

John 17

"I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS

PROTECTING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AGAINST INVASION

EXECUTIVE ORDER

January 20, 2025

Section 1. Purpose. Over the last 4 years, the prior administration invited, administered, and oversaw an unprecedented flood of illegal immigration into the United States. Millions of illegal aliens crossed our borders or were permitted to fly directly into the United States on commercial flights and allowed to settle in American communities, in violation of longstanding Federal laws.

Many of these aliens unlawfully within the United States present significant threats to national security and public safety, committing vile and heinous acts against innocent Americans. Others are engaged in hostile activities, including espionage, economic espionage, and preparations for terror-related activities. Many have abused the generosity of the American people, and their presence in the United States has cost taxpayers billions of dollars at the Federal, State, and local levels.

According to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Ibarra and his wife entered the United States near El Paso, Texas, in September 2022. After being arrested and released, his wife told the New York Post they were put on a bus and sent to New York.

At that time, immigration attorney Pamela Peynado said Venezuelans had special protective status in the U.S.

"It could be political unrest, it could be a national disaster," she said, "but we're basically allowing these individuals to stay here for a temporary amount of time because it's unsafe to send them back to their home country."

By that time, Ibarra's brother Diego was living in Athens. It was only about a month after Ibarra's arrest in New York that he and his brother were accused of stealing from a Walmart in Athens.

According to the police report, the two allegedly took bacon, smoked sausage, queso fresco cheese and some clothes. They were given a citation for misdemeanor shoplifting and let go.
